

WATER MONITOR LIZARD

The Water Monitor Lizard is semi-aquatic species capable of occupying a wide range habitats but always near water. These lizards are often found in swamps, flat land or river.

TRIBE
RASA

Find this Water Monitor Lizard at Ocean Wing & Garden Wing Pool!
Want to know more? Go to the
Discovery Centre

EARTH TIGER TARANTULA

The Earth Tigers Tarantula, also known as Ornithoctoninae, are known as defensive.

When disturbed they quickly retreat into their burrows or dig themselves into the soil.

TRIBE
RASA

Find this Earth Tiger Tarantula at Nature Reserve! Want to know more? Go to the Discovery Centre

OTTER

These clever creatures,
will use rocks to crack open the clams.
They carry rocks and store food in the loose skin
under their armpits.

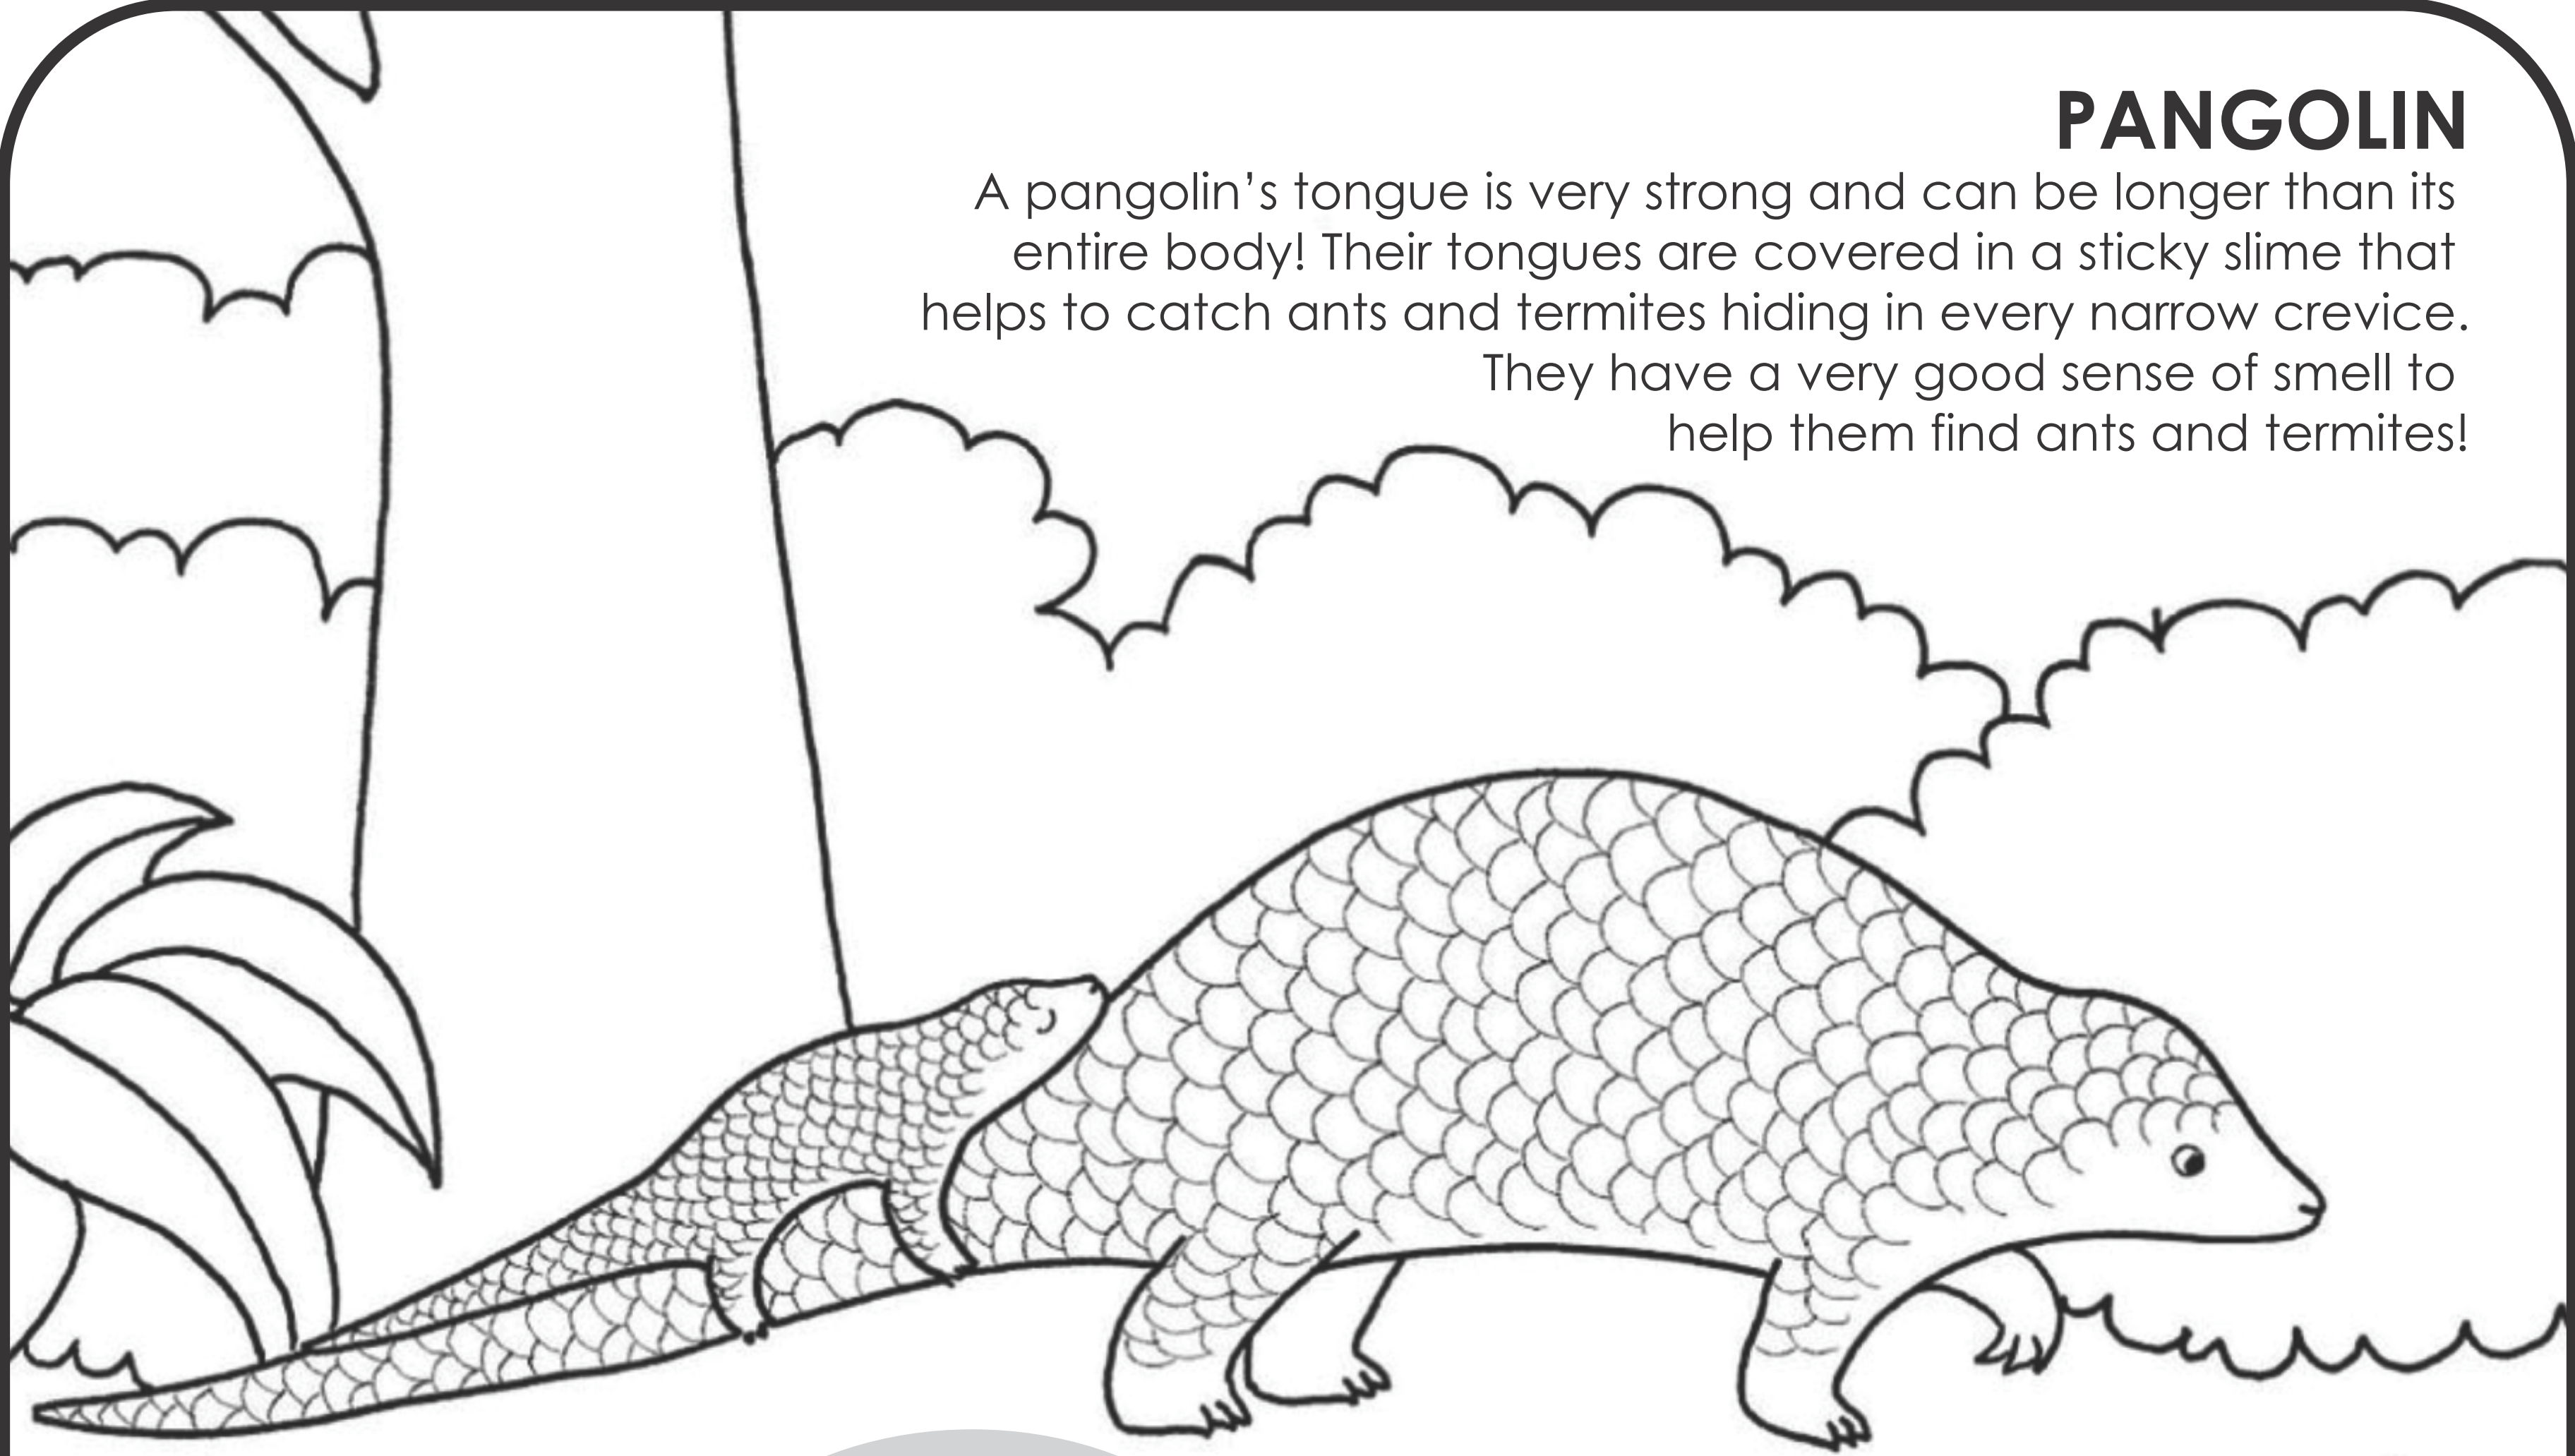

Find this Otter at Dalit Bay Golf!
Want to know more? Go to the
Discovery Centre

PANGOLIN

A pangolin's tongue is very strong and can be longer than its entire body! Their tongues are covered in a sticky slime that helps to catch ants and termites hiding in every narrow crevice.

They have a very good sense of smell to help them find ants and termites!

Find this Pangolin at Nature Reserve
Want to know more? Go to the
Discovery Centre

LONG TAIL MACAQUE

The unique Long-tailed macaque exhibits an extremely long tail, which is longer than its height from the head to rump. This primate has a pinkish-brown face and white spaces on its eyelids, near the nose.

MACAW

Macaws are the largest parrots among the 370 different species of parrots on earth. They have powerful beaks which can crack into seeds and hard nuts.

TRIBE
RASA

Find this Macaw at Tepi Laut Lawn!
Want to know more? Go to the
Discovery Centre

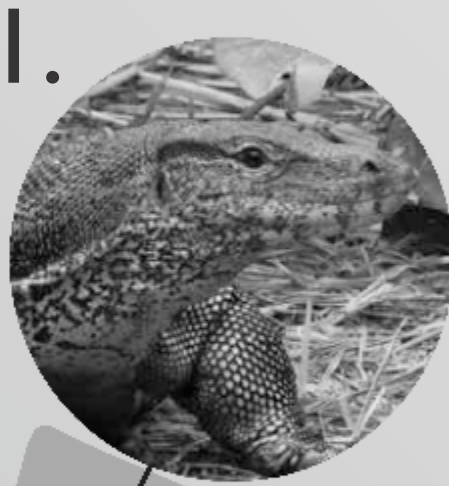

HORSE

Scientists believe that horses have evolved over the past 50 million years from much smaller creatures. Horses can sleep both lying down and standing up.

Find this Horse at Ocean Wing Horse Paddock! Want to know more? Go to the Discovery Centre

You may find this animal at:

1. Garden or Ocean Wing Pool
2. Rasa Ria Reserve
3. Dalit Bay Golf
4. Rasa Ria Reserve
5. Waterfall Garden
6. Tepi Laut Lawn's (big tree)
7. Ocean Wing horse paddock

For more information please visit the Discovery Centre

to Dalit Bay Golf
& Country Club
&
The Spa

to Jungle:
Rasa Ria Reserve

